

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks
What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?

Agriculture is include the preparation of plant and animal products for people to use and their distributin to markets

It could also emphasize the role of diversity in crops, sustainable practices, and the need to balance tradition with innovation.

Agriculture provides also a cotton, wool, and leather are all agricultural products.

Agriculture responds to changes in weather patterns such as rainfall ,temperature ,and extreme events like drought or floods which impact growth.

What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

It needs innovation in technology, irrigation systems and crop management to meet the global demand.

It wants sustainable practices that ensure long-term soil health, water conversation and biodiversity.

GreenThumbBharat

Farmers rotate crops to improve soil health,prevent soil erosion and manage pests demonstrating sustainable approach.

Efficient irrigation systems and drought-resistant crop varieties address water scarcity challenges.

Combining trees with crops or livestock demonstrates a holistic approach to land use, benefiting biodiversity and soil health

Unpredictable weather patterns,pests and market fluctuations
can lead to frustration
among farmers, and practices.

Concerns about climate change, crop diseases, or financial instability can lead to anxiety among farmers, influencing their choices.

Difficulty in finding and retaining farm laborers can be sources of frustration impacting farm operations.

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

